

Cloud Spotting with Tim & Moby

Spot a cloud each day! Use any materials you like to demonstrate the type of cloud you've spotted.

Monday:

Tuesday:

Wednesday:

What type of cloud have you spotted?
Write your answer here:

What type of cloud have you spotted?
Write your answer here:

What type of cloud have you spotted?
Write your answer here:

Thursday:

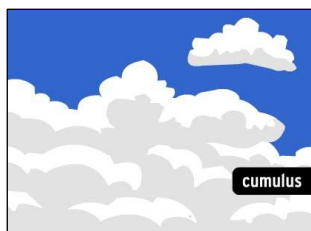

Friday:

Just for fun!
Can you draw a Moby cloud?

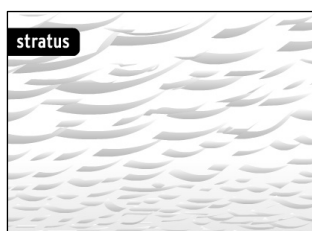

What type of cloud have you spotted?
Write your answer here:

What type of cloud have you spotted?
Write your answer here:

Types of cloud:

Cumulus clouds are puffy and white with flat bottoms

Stratus clouds form in layers

Cirrus clouds are feather – like and bright white with wispy edges

There can often be combinations of cloud types